Hello everyone! I'm proud to stand with the nurses at UW Health who are calling for a union to advocate for themselves and our community! UW nurses have risked their lives and their families' lives to care for us during this pandemic. They're struggling with dangerous understaffing, turnover, exhaustion and trauma. Here's what you can do right now to support these dedicated nurses: sign the petition urging the UW Health Board and administration to recognize their union NOW so they can work together to solve this growing crisis and ensure safe, quality patient care. Go to Change.org forward slash support UW nurses. UW nurses have been there for us, now let's ALL show we're there for them. Thank you!
