

Kujichagulia Center Madison for Self-Determination Presents

35th Annual | Juneteenth Celebration

Black Resilience Cohesion & Reclamation

Saturday, June 15 2024
11am - 6pm

The 35th Juneteenth celebration annual theme of "Resilience, Reclamation, and Cohesion," can create a cohesive and impactful event that honors African American/Diaspora history and inspires unity and empowerment within the community.

Juneteenth is a day of reflection, a day of renewal, and a pride-filled day. It is a moment in time taken to appreciate the African American experience. It is inclusive of all races, ethnicities, and nationalities, as nothing is more comforting than the hand of a friend.
